

Easter Days Out

|                                                                                                                                            | Location                               | Age group     | £££                                                                 |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------|---------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Lindt Gold Bunny Hunt (Easter Egg hut and Entry to Hampton Court Palace)                                                                   | Hampton Court PalaceGreater London | 3 to 12 years | Members go free Adult £27.20 Child £13.60                           |
| Easter Eggstravanganza (activities like balloon modelling, bungee trampolines, a vintage variety show, meet Easter bunny!)                 | Blenheim Palace,Oxford             | All ages      | Adult from £31Child from £15                                    |
| British Motor Museum (puzzling adventure, get creative in the Learning Space and more)                                                     | WarwickWarwickshire                | All ages      | Adults from £17 Child from £9 Families from £46Under 5s go FREE |
| Zoonormous Egg Hunt (Embark on a quest to find hidden eggs and crack a secret password)                                                    | London Zoo                             | All ages      | With Zoo entry                                                      |
| The Big Egg Hunt (Participate in a London-wide trail supporting the Elephant Family, featuring egg sculptures designed by leading artists) | Convent GardensLondon              | Not specified | Free                                                                |
| Minecraft Experience (Step into the world of Minecraft and save villagers from a zombie horde in this AR-boosted experience)               | Canary WharfLondon                 | Not specified | £29.50 adults£24.50 kids                                        |
| Tutankhamun: The Immersive Exhibition (Journey through Ancient Egypt with cutting-edge technology and historical narratives)               | ExCelLondon                        | 5 +           | £20-£26.50                                                          |
| Easter Events at Dover Castle (Participate in the "Big Brick Build" and "Easter Adventure Quest.")                                         | Dover CastleKent                   | 5 to 17 years | £25 adults, £16 kids                                                |
| Cadbury World (Mr Cadbury's Parrot and friends will entertain with fun-filled songs, laughter, and plenty of Easter surprises!)            | BirminghamMidlands                 | All ages      | Included in entry: £25                                              |